

Task

Create a moodboard that represents you as a person to display in class.

Resources

Rulers	Rubbers
Coloured paper	Felt tips
Pencils	Sellotape
Magazines	Stencils
Scissors

Instructions

1. You will be working independently— this is about you.
2. Organise your resources and choose what you are going to include in your moodboard that represents you as a person — be creative (see ideas below).
3. Remember it's a display so it needs to be interesting and feature images of the things you like/dislike.
4. You also need to include a little bit of text with your images to say why they are included on your mood board..

Remember! You need to include some text and proofread your work
